

TAKE NOTE

I emailed Father Christmas
At santaclausdotcom
With this year's Christmas list
And everything I want
Expensive and expansive
I asked for such a lot
Then Santa emailed back
And this is what I got
A print out of another list
Of things that I should leave
At the bottom of the chimney
On this Christmas Eve ...
Snow proof leather Wellingtons
Thermal underwear
Gloves with fleecy lining
A hat that's lined with fur
A scarf that's extra extra long
To wrap around a beard of white
Goggles for the snowstorms
Headlights for the darkest night
Reindeer socks and woolly hats
Carrots, milk and oats
Sherry, pies and whisky
To warm up winter throats
Chocolate bars for energy
Coffee, tea and cake
Matchsticks to help tired eyes
To try and stay awake
It finished with a little note
From Santa Claus himself
Wishing us the very best
Happiness and health
I read it once, then once again –
Seeing is believing –
He said "Remember, Christmas is
For giving, not receiving"
