

THE PURPLE PIMPLED PUMPALONGS FROM THE PLANET PING PONG

If you go to outer space
You might find the strangest place
A place that's home, where we belong
The Purple Pimpled Pumpalongs from the Planet Ping Pong

Past the moon, towards the stars
Left by Saturn, right by Mars
A xillion miles – you can't go wrong
The Purple Pimpled Pumpalongs from the Planet Ping Pong

Blast right through the Milky Way
A distant universe away
On the dark side of the sun
The Purple Pimpled Pumpalongs from the Planet Ping Pong

Through black holes and meteorites
Look out for the flashing lights
There of course, the force is strong
The Purple Pimpled Pumpalongs from the Planet Ping Pong

Come on down and stay a while
Sing a song to make you smile
Join our hoppy happy throng
The Purple Pimpled Pumpalongs from the Planet Ping Pong

Ears that ding and eyes that dong
Hands that bing and horns that bong
Bump along and sing a song
A song that you can sing along
Our favourite song "The Ning Nang Nong"
The Purple Pimpled Pumpalongs from the Planet Ping Pong
